

Supplementary material S4 – Stakeholders

The findings from the proof of concept study were widely presented to stakeholders including specialist advisory committees' chairs from all the physician specialties, heads of the postgraduate schools of medicine and the three trainees' committees. The trainees' committees represent trainees from the three royal colleges of physicians (London, Edinburgh & Glasgow).